AAA FCU is at your service...

While these are not all the services that AAA FCU provides for our members, these are services we want to remind you are available!

Website & Online Banking: Our website can be accessed at www.aaafcu.com and online banking is available free of charge to all members.

Alliance One ATMs: Access to your cash at any Alliance One ATM in St. Joseph County without incurring a fee.

Facebook Updates: Up-to-date information on our Facebook page about loan specials and daily operations.

Experienced Staff: Knowledgeable and friendly staff members with over 450 years of collective service.

Loans: Full service loans from credit cards to mortgages.

Club Accounts: Club accounts for children, teens, those 50 years of age and older, Christmas and Vacation.

Remote Deposit Transfer: You can deposit a check right from your mobile device. Simply endorse the check, hold your camera over the front and back of the check and let the app do the rest!

Alerts: Set up alerts and stay informed and in control of your finances. Alerts can include security issues, dollar thresholds and account and credit card activity.

Bill Pay: Track, receive, pay and keep your bills all in one place with Bill Pay. You choose the date, amount and how often you want to pay. You can even set bills ahead of time to make sure you are covered during those fun summer trips.

Investment services and financial planning: Full IRA options available.

Shared Branching Network: Have access to your account from over 5,600 credit unions coast-to-coast. For a list of participating financial institutions, visit <https://www.co-opfs.org/Solutions/Engage/CO-OP-Shared-Branch>.

You will not incur a fee if you use any Alliance One ATM in St. Joseph County.

These machines include ATMs from the following institutions. If you happen to notice a fee charged to your account, please inform a teller and the fee will be refunded.
